

Dave Carter's ___ best friend. We ___ when we were five years old because our parents ___ friends and we went to the same school. He works in a different city now, so I only see ___ at weekends and during the holidays. He's important to me. ___ he knows me so well. We have a really good laugh together and we enjoy the ___ things – football, clubbing, girls, the usual stuff. When I'm feeling down or when I ___ to talk to somebody, I can always call him. Recently, I had girlfriend problems and he was great – he's a ___ good listener. He just ___ you speak and he listens. But he is ___ perfect! He's always late for everything and he ___ says sorry. Never! The last time I saw him ___ last weekend. We ___ to meet at four o'clock to play football, and he arrived at half past six! It was ___ dark! Oh well, nobody's perfect, are they? He's ___ a really good mate.