

The 24th AKS Summer Program for International Students

The Academy of Korean Studies (AKS) is pleased to announce the "24th AKS Summer Program for International Students." As an important part of our mission is to cultivate young leaders, who can contribute to the development of Korean studies, the academy has organized an intensive summer program for international undergraduate students in Korean studies. This program is composed of various components, such as special lectures on Korea, intensive Korean language course, field trips, excursions, and traditional cultural activities. Since its starting in 1993, we held the program for 23 times and around 664 students from 45 countries attended the program. For those who are interested in the 24th AKS Summer Program for International Students, please read the notification carefully and apply for the program.
