

Comparative Government and Politics

URB 975012

Rod Hague
Martin Harrop
John McCormick

Dipartimento di Scienze Politiche
Biblioteca
Inv.	DSP 6268
Coll.	SP I. C. 2218

palgrave

Detailed contents

Illustrations and features	viii
Preface	xii
Guide to learning features	xiv
Guide to spotlight feature	xvi
Guide to the website	xvii
1 Key concepts
Key concepts: an overview	2
Government and governance	2
Politics	6
Power	8
The state, authority, and legitimacy	9
Ideology	10
Comparative politics	12
Classifying political systems	13
2 The state
The state: an overview	20
What is a state?	20
Emergence of the state system	23
The expansion of states	24
The diversity of states	26
Nations and nationalism	29
Challenges to the state	31
3 Democracy
Democratic rule: an overview	38
Direct democracy	38
Representative democracy	41
Liberal democracy	43
Democracy and modernization	48
Waves of democracy	49
Democratization	51
4 Authoritarian rule
Authoritarian rule: an overview	57
Hybrid regimes	57
Authoritarian regimes	59
Forms of authoritarian rule	61
The political impact of corruption	70
5 Theoretical approaches
Theoretical approaches: an overview	74
The changing face of comparative politics	74
The institutional approach	77
The behavioural approach	81
The structural approach	82
The rational choice approach	84
The interpretive approach	85
6 Comparing government and politics
Comparing government and politics: an overview	91
Comparative research methods	91
Case study method	92
Qualitative method	95
Quantitative method	96
The challenges of comparison	99
Historical method	103
7 Constitutions and courts
Constitutions and courts: an overview	109
The character of constitutions	109
The durability of constitutions	111
The role of courts	113
Judicial activism	118
Judicial independence and recruitment	119
Systems of law	121
Constitutions and courts in authoritarian states	123
8 Legislatures
Legislatures: an overview	128
Functions	128
Structure	133
Members	139
Legislatures in authoritarian states	141

9	Executives	145	Recent trends in political communication	240
	Executives: an overview	146	Comparing media outlets	244
	Presidential executives	148	Political communication in authoritarian states	246
	Parliamentary executives	150
	Semi-presidential executives	154
	Executives in authoritarian states	158
10	Bureaucracies	162	15 Political parties	251
	Bureaucracies: an overview	163	Political parties: an overview	252
	Evolution	163	Origins and roles	252
	Organization	166	Party systems	253
	Recruitment	171	Party organization	257
	New public management	174	Party membership	261
	E-government	176	Party finance	262
	Bureaucracies in authoritarian states	177	Political parties in authoritarian states	263
11	Sub-national government	181	16 Elections	269
	Sub-national government: an overview	182	Elections: an overview	270
	Multilevel governance	182	Electing legislatures	270
	Unitary systems	184	Electing presidents	276
	Federal systems	186	Election campaigns	278
	Comparing unitary and federal systems	191	Referendums, initiatives, and recalls	280
	Local government	192	Elections in authoritarian states	282
	Sub-national government in authoritarian states	196	17 Voters	286
12	Political culture	200	Voters: an overview	287
	Political culture: an overview	201	Party identification	287
	The civic culture	201	How voters choose	289
	Political trust and social capital	203	Voter turnout	297
	Elite political culture	205	Voters in authoritarian states	299
	Post-materialism	206
	Huntington's Clash of Civilizations	210	18 Interest groups	304
	Political culture in authoritarian states	212	Interest groups: an overview	305
13	Political participation	216	Types of interest group	305
	Political participation: an overview	217	The dynamics of interest groups	308
	Who participates, and why?	217	Channels of influence	311
	Public opinion	221	Ingredients of influence	314
	Women and political participation	224	Social movements	317
	Participation in authoritarian states	228	Interest groups in authoritarian states	320
14	Political communication	233	19 Public policy	324
	Political communication: an overview	234	Public policy: an overview	325
	Media development	234	Models of the policy process	325
	Media influence	238	The policy cycle	328
			Policy diffusion and convergence	335
			Public policy in authoritarian states	338
			References	342
			Index	359