

Thorsten Bonacker | Werner Distler
Maria Ketzmerick [eds.]

Securitization in Statebuilding and Intervention

Nomos

Table of Contents

Introduction: Securitization in Statebuilding and Intervention Thorsten Bonacker, Werner Distler, Maria Ketzmerick	9
Part 1	29
The Securitization of International Peacebuilding Stefanie Kappler	31
The Proxy Myth. Western Securitization and Arms Supplies for Libyan Rebels Witold Mucha	53
Invoking Religion in Securitizing Moves. Five Cases in US History Robin Lucke, Katharina McLarren	77
Engaging with the “Threat”? Tracing Desecuritization between the UN Security Council and UN Missions Kerstin Eppert, Mitja Sienknecht	105
The ‘Politics of Protection’ and Elections in Trusteeship and International Administration. The Cases of Cameroun and Kosovo. Werner Distler, Maria Ketzmerick	127
How Security Dynamics Shaped Trusteeship Statebuilding: The French Administration of Cameroon Thorsten Bonacker, Maria Ketzmerick	155

The De/Construction of Security in the Building of the “Second Republic” in Turkey, 2002-2015	185
İlkin Özdikmenli
The Role of Civil Society in Conflict Transformation. Human Rights and the (De-)securitization of Ethno-political Conflict	215
Richard Georgi
How Dynamics of Security Contribute to Illiberal Statebuilding. The Case of Tajikistan	245
Thorsten Bonacker, Denis Liebetanz
The Snake Bites its Tail: Securitization instead of Development in South Sudan	271
Ole Frahm	