

Essays on Secularism and Multiculturalism

Tariq Modood

ecpr PRESS

ROWMAN &
LITTLEFIELD
INTERNATIONAL

London • New York

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: Rethinking Political Secularism: The Multiculturalist Challenge	1
I: The Racialisation of Muslims / Muslims as ‘Race Relations’ Actors	31
1 Racism, Culturalism and Cultural Racism	33
2 Ethno-Religious Assertiveness Out of Racial Equality	47
3 Maintaining Civility and the Feelings of the Hated	61
4 Islamophobia and the Struggle for Recognition	75
5 Pointing to a Multicultural Future: Rethinking Race, Ethnicity, Religion and Britishness	89
II: Multiculturalism and Secularism	115
6 Muslims, Religious Equality and Secularism	117
7 Multicultural Citizenship and the Shari’a Controversy in Britain	135
8 Moderate Secularism, Religion as Identity and Respect for Religion	145
9 Multiculturalism and the ‘Crisis of Secularism’	163
10 State-Religion Connexions and Multicultural Citizenship	179
11 Multiculturalizing Secularism	195
12 Intercultural Public Intellectual Engagement	215
Index	235

