

MERLEAU-PONTY AND MODERN POLITICS AFTER ANTI-HUMANISM

MIL 733372

Diana Coole

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Series Editor's Introduction by Morton Schoolman	xi
Introduction: Situating and Reading Merleau-Ponty as a Political Thinker	1
Part One: The Critique of Rationalism
1 A Crisis of Modernity?	23
2 The Critiques of Ideology, Liberalism, and Capitalism	41
3 Adventures and Misadventures of the Dialectic	63
Part Two: In Pursuit of the Interworld
4 Phenomenology as Critical Theory	93
5 Living History, Practising Politics	123
6 Negativity, Agency, and the Return to Ontology	159
Part Three: The Politics of the Body, the Flesh of the Political
7 The Phenomenology of the Sexed/Gendered Body and the Metaphorics of the Flesh	197
8 The Flesh of the Political after Anti-Humanism	225

Bibliography	2
Index	2
About the Author	2;