On the Way to Statehood
Secession and Globalisation

Edited by
ALEKSANDAR PAVKOVIĆ
PETER RADAN
Macquarie University, Australia
Contents

Acknowledgements vii
List of Contributors ix

Introduction 1
Aleksandar Pavković

1. Secession: A Word in Search of a Meaning 17
   Peter Radan

2. Neo-liberal Globalisation, Nationalism, and Changed 33
   ‘Conditions of Possibility’ for Secessionist Mobilisation
   Lloyd Cox

3. Secession and State Recognition in International Relations 51
   and Law
   Mikulas Fabry

   to Secession and State Sovereignty
   Kathryn Sturman

5. The Way Opened, the Way Blocked: Assessing the Contrasting 85
   Fates of Chechnya and Kosovo
   James Headley

6. Secessionist Legitimacy: A Comparative Analysis 101
   Damien Kingsbury

7. Self-determination and Secession: A Moral Theory Perspective 117
   Aris Gounaris

8. Consensual Secession of Montenegro – Towards Good Practice? 133
   Miodrag Jovanović

9. The Collective Moral Agency of Secessionist Groups 149
   Constantinos Laoutides

10. The First Secessions 163
    Tom Hillard

Index 175