

THE REDISCOVERY
OF AMERICA

Native Peoples and the Unmaking of U.S. History

Ned Blackhawk

Yale UNIVERSITY PRESS NEW HAVEN AND LONDON

CONTENTS

List of Maps ix

Introduction: Toward a New American History 1

PART I | INDIANS AND EMPIRES

1. American Genesis: Indians and the Spanish Borderlands 17
2. The Native Northeast and the Rise of British North America 48
3. The Unpredictability of Violence: Iroquoia and New France to 1701 73
4. The Native Inland Sea: The Struggle for the Heart of the Continent, 1701–55 106
5. Settler Uprising: The Indigenous Origins of the American Revolution 139
6. Colonialism's Constitution: The Origins of Federal Indian Policy 176

PART II | STRUGGLES FOR SOVEREIGNTY

7. The Deluge of Settler Colonialism: Democracy and Dispossession in the Early Republic 211

8. Foreign Policy Formations: California, the Pacific, and the Borderlands Origins of the Monroe Doctrine 250
 9. Collapse and Total War: The Indigenous West and the U.S. Civil War 289
 10. Taking Children and Treaty Lands: Laws and Federal Power during the Reservation Era 329
 11. Indigenous Twilight at the Dawn of the Century: Native Activists and the Myth of Indian Disappearance 365
 12. From Termination to Self-Determination: Native American Sovereignty in the Cold War Era 408
- Notes 449
- Acknowledgments 551
- Index 553