

Untrodden Ground

How Presidents Interpret the Constitution

Dipartimento di Scienze Politiche Biblioteca
Inv. 100-100
Coll. COST. 45R.A. 210

HAROLD H. BRUFF

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

CHICAGO AND LONDON

Contents

INTRODUCTION: Only a Necessity 1

PART I. Durable Consequences

CHAPTER 1. Responsibility: The Constitution 11

CHAPTER 2. Summoned by My Country: Washington and Adams 25

CHAPTER 3. The Fugitive Occurrence: Jefferson and Madison 57

PART II. A New Nation

CHAPTER 4. Independent of Both: Jackson, Tyler, and Polk 83

CHAPTER 5. A Rough Time of It: Lincoln 120

CHAPTER 6. Unmindful of the High Duties: Andrew Johnson 157

PART III. Steward of the People

CHAPTER 7. Facing the Lions: McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, and Wilson 187

CHAPTER 8. What Must Be Done: Franklin Roosevelt 223

PART IV. One Single Man

CHAPTER 9. Going to Hell: Truman and Eisenhower 261

CHAPTER 10. Bear Any Burden: Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson 293

CHAPTER 11. Not Illegal: Nixon, Ford, and Carter 325

PART V.        A New Era

CHAPTER 12. First a Dream: Reagan 359

CHAPTER 13. The Vision Thing: George H. W. Bush and Clinton 376

PART VI.        Deciders

CHAPTER 14. No Equivocation: George W. Bush 401

CHAPTER 15. The Last Mile: Obama 427

CONCLUSION: The Stream of History 456

Acknowledgments 467

Notes 469

Index 551