Biography

José B. Ashford is a professor in the School of Social Work and director of the Office of Forensic Social Work Research and Training in the College of Public Service and Community Solutions at Arizona State University. Ashford is also an affiliate faculty member in the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice and the School of Justice and Social Inquiry.

Ashford is widely published in areas dealing with the assessment, classification, and treatment of special need offenders, juvenile aftercare and forensic social work. He testifies around the country as an expert in the assessment of mitigating factors in capital murder cases.

Among his honors, Ashford was the recipient of the President of the United States Volunteer Service Award from the Points of Light Foundation.

Ashford holds a doctorate in sociology from Bowling Green State University.

Ashford's research areas of interest include recidivism prevention, treatment of offenders, immaturity and culpability assessments, mental health and mitigation of punishment.

Education

Ph.D. Sociology, Bowling Green State University.

Research Interests

Recidivism prevention
Treatment of offenders

Immaturity and culpability assessments

Mental Health

Mitigation of punishment

Publications

• Ashford, Jose Barry, Sales, B. D., Reid, W. Political, Legal, and Professional Challenges to Treating Offenders with Special Needs. Treating Adult and Juvenile Offenders with Special Needs (2001).

Research Activity

- Ashford, Jose Barry*. Designing and Implementing an Evaluation of the Maricopa County Human Service Department's Community Justice Services Program. MARICOPA CNTY(7/1/2011 - 12/31/2013).