Contributions formatting:

- ◆ The manuscript MUST NOT be formatted in order to imitate the graphic layout of the published text;
- ◆ Automatic hyphenation must be turned off;
- ◆ The contribution is written in Times New Roman typeface, size 12, justified;
- ◆ Footnotes are written in the same typeface as the body of the text, size 10; a full stop at the end of every note is needed. The related superscript number always precedes punctuation (e.g.: text¹. / text¹);
- ◆ The title is written in capital letters, size 14; the subtitle (if there is any) is written in italics, size 12;
- ◆ The author's name is positioned at the end of the contribution, aligned to the right: the name is written in its entirety in small letters, the surname in capital letters (e.g.: Elisabetta Maria ROSSI, Marco INCISA GIOVANNINI);
- ◆ Paragraph titles are written in italics, separated by two empty lines (enters) before the title and one empty line after it;
- ◆ The en-dash (–) is used to open and close parenthetical asides and needs spacing before and after it (e.g.: and – after a long research – he finished the article); in all the other cases the hyphen (-) is used (e.g.: pp. 7-10; Mario Rossi-Stefano Bianchi; Anglo-American; 1990-1992). Quotations:

- ◆ Short quotations (less than 2 lines) are written between double quotation marks (“...”); if there are internal quotations, they should be signalled with guillemets/angle quotes («...»);

- ◆ The same applies when quoting verses. Short quotations are written in the main body, between double quotation marks (“...”); longer quotes are written in size 10, separated from the main body with one enter before and one after the quoted text. In both cases, verses are written consecutively, separated by one slash (/) at the end of the verse, two slashes (//) at the end of the stanza. One space is always needed before and after the slash/es.

Quotations and title translation:

- ◆ If the language of a quotation is different from the language of the main body, the quotation must be translated (with the exception of the English and French language);
- ◆ The translation of a quotation (whether short or long) follows in angle brackets [...] the original text (e.g.: quoted text in original language [translated quotation]);
- ◆ The titles of foreign works that the author mentions in the main body must be translated in angle brackets [transl. title]. The titles of works mentioned in the footnotes MUST NOT be translated.
