

International Symposium

Clashes, Contacts and Contaminations: How the Portuguese and the Dutch Met (in) the World

10th October 2023 – Aula 2 (4th floor Faculty Building)

Programme

10.00 Welcome Speech

10:15 Session 1

Francesca Terrenato (Sapienza Università di Roma), Evolving Feelings, Rooted Prejudices: A Gender-based Reading of Van Linschoten's Itinerario (1596)

Giacomo Comiati (Università di Padova/Sapienza Università di Roma), Dutch-Portuguese conflicts in colonial Brazil through the lens of Franciscus Plante's Mauritias (1647)

Lorenzo Nespoli (Università di Padova), Portuguese Influence on the Japanese Understanding of the Dutch in the 18th Century

11:15 Debate

11:30 Coffee Break

11:45 Session 2

Harm den Boer (Universität Basel), Western Sephardim's perception of Asian religion and culture (17th and 18th centuries)

Francesco Genovesi (CLEPUL-Universidade de Lisboa/Sapienza Università di Roma), Dutch Space and Portuguese Language: African Slaves' and Sephardic Jews' Communication from Recife to Manhattan

12: 25 Debate

12:40 Session 3

Michela Graziani (Università di Firenze), Presentation of the Portuguese manuscripts in the ETS Haim Bibliothek of Amsterdam

Simone Celani (Sapienza Università di Roma), Reconciling opposites: António Vieira between Portugal, The Netherlands and Brazil

13.20 Debate

13.30 Closing Remarks

Scientific Committee

Simone Celani, Francesco Genovesi,
Lorenzo Nespoli, Francesca Terrenato