

24 September 2015

8:30-9:00	REGISTRATION (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
9:00-9:15	OPENING (AULA MAGNA)
09:15-10:15	INVITED PLENARY (AULA MAGNA) Francesco d'Errico TBA
10:15-10:30	Coffee break (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
	AULA MAGNA	AULA VERRA	AULA MATASSI
	SYMPOSIUM The emergence of the human language-ready-brain (Organizers: Benítez-Burraco/ Boeckx).	PARALLEL SESSION 2	PARALLEL SESSION 3
10:30-10:55	Benítez-Burraco A., Genetic underpinnings of language-readiness	Ways to Proto-Morphology: What complex words reveal about human cognition and cultural evolution Hartmann S.	Gorillas combine gestures into sequences for (at least) two different reasons Tanner J.E. & Perlman M.
10:55-11:20	Theofanopoulou C., Globularity and laterality.	Differential Composition - How to Grow a Language Long C.	The Multimodal Origin Of Human Speech Qing Zhang E., Tiago Martins P. & Shi E.R.
11:20-11:45	Boeckx C., Globularity and the rise of speech as we know it	On modelling the emergence of language: the case of a "horde" of autonomous robotic agents Konderak P.	Not a Monolith: an Evolutionary Odyssey from Ape Vocalisations to Human Music Miani A.
11:45-12:10	Asano R., Musical abilities and language-readiness	The cultural evolution of functional morphology in an Iterated Learning Experiment Saldana C., Kirby S. & Smith K.	Do chimpanzees and bonobos communicate differently? Fröhlich M., Kuchenbuch P.H., Hohmann G., Furuichi T., Wittig R.M. & Pika S.
12:10-12:35	PARALLEL SESSION 1 Iconicity in spoken languages and its relation to ease of word learning Perry L., Perlman M. & Lupyan G.	Easing automation in sentence processing: the emergence of Topic and Presupposition units in human language Vallauri E. & Masia V.	Compositional Syntax in a Cooperatively Breeding Bird Engesser S., Townsend S.W. & Ridley A.
12:35-13:00	Evolutionary perspective on imitative patterns in pantomime vocalisations Rogalska K., Jaskólska A., Waciewicz S. & Żywiczyński P.	Ontogenetic Ritualization and The Emergence of Gestural Symbols in Autonomous Robot Spranger M. & Steels L.	Encoding serial and simultaneous grammars: insights from newly hatched chicks Versace E., Nencini A., Schill J. & Vallortigara G.
13:00-14:30	Lunch (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
14:30-15:30	INVITED PLENARY (AULA MAGNA) Elisabetta Visalberghi Stone tool use in nonhuman primates. A comparison between FBV bearded capuchins and Tai chimpanzees

	AULA MAGNA	AULA VERRA	AULA MATASSI
	SYMPOSIUM Protolanguage and Protoreligion Co-Evolution Symposium (Organizers: Feierman/Oviedo/Colagè/Williamson/ Favrega Jr.)	PARALLEL SESSION 2	PARALLEL SESSION 3
15:30-15:55	Williamson P., Do neuropsychiatric disorders, language and religion emerge from adaptations in the human brain that allow the consideration of consequences of two or more courses of action?	Environmental affordances shape linguistic coordination in the maze game Nölle J., Mills G.J. & Tylèn K.	The uniquely human cognitive bias that makes language learning possible Imai M., Murai C., Miyazaki M., Tomonaga M. & Okada H.
15:55-16:20	Colagè I., The role of cultural processes in the acquisition of language and religion. A theoretical perspective	Storytelling without telling: pre-linguistic origins of narratives from an evolutionary perspective Sibierska M.	What language is for: A view from cognition Lupyan G.
16:20-16:45	Feierman J., Speech and religions' co-evolutionary paths	Self-regulators: a hidden dimension of conversational cooperation? Orzechowski S., Zywczyński P., Wacewicz S. & Pałka N.	Towards a map of linguistic phenotypes Barcelo-Coblijn L.
16:45-17.00	Coffee break (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
17:00-17:25	Oviedo L., Religion as a language: basic and developed expressions	Linking actions and intentions to discourses: Towards an embodied pragmatic theory of language evolution Cosentino E.	Squeal, laugh, and take turns. Differences in emotional mechanisms between speech and birdsong learning Berra I.
17:25-17:50	Fabrega H., Evolutionary imperatives, human psychology, semantic metalanguage, and origins of metaphysical problem solving	Mental time travel, storytelling and the evolution of language: insights from Autism Spectrum Disorder Ferretti F., Valeri G., Adornetti I., Chiera A., Magni R., Nicchiarelli S. & Marini A.	Communicative development in comparative perspective Pika S.
17.50 –18.15	PARALLEL SESSION 1 The phonetics of chimpanzees: Articulatory acoustic analysis Uomini N., Grawunder S. & Crockford C.	Protolanguage and the Dynamics of Meaning Construal in Interaction Pleyer M.	The development of sophisticated forms of communication in humans Galantucci B.
18.15 –19.00	*POSTERS SESSION (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
20.00 CONFERENCE DINNER AR VOLO RISTORANTE PIZZERIA – Lungotevere di Pietra Papa, 55

25 September 2015

09:00-10:00	INVITED PLENARY (AULA MAGNA) Dan Dediu Language doesn't evolve in a void: culture, biology and physical environment
10:00-10:20	Coffee break (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
	AULA MAGNA SYMPOSIUM Iconicity in protolanguage. Motivating meaning in vision and sound (Organizers: Wacewicz/ Zlatev/ Zywiczyński)	AULA VERRA SYMPOSIUM Cues for language. The story of language from a multidisciplinary approach (Organizers: D'Alonzo/Di Paolo/ De Simone)	AULA MATASSI PARALLEL SESSION 3
10:20-10:45	Lister C.J., Fay N., Ellison M & Ohan J., Creating new science system from scratch: gesture has the upper hand	D'Alonzo J., From gesture to cooperation. A brief history of philosophical debate on protolanguage	Decanalization and the emergence of modern language: a molecular approach Benítez-Burraco A.
10:45-11:10	Larsson M., Locomotor and tool use as associated sound in the evolution of language	Di Vincenzo F., Motor facilitation of the imitative vocal gesture and the origin of speech	Niche construction, relaxed selection and neoteny: the evolution of language within an updated evolutionary research program Suman F.
11:10-11:35	Perlman M., Paul J.Z & Lupyan G., Congenitally deaf children generate iconic vocalization to communicate magnitude	Napoli M., Carve the experience. Narrativity between cognition and language	How speech connects with language: Interactions between learning mechanisms and sexual selection Castillo G.
11:35-12:00	Zlatev J., Zywiczyński P. & Wacewicz S., Multimodal in event reenactments	De Simone D.A., The predictive brain hypothesis and the challenge of language	Laryngeal Vocalization in Communication, Development, and Evolution McCune L.
12:00-12:25	PARALLEL SESSION 1 Semiotic exaptations in the homo genus: the unique morphology of the human eye Perea García J. O.	PARALLEL SESSION 2 The transmission of entrenched linguistic knowledge through iterated learning among native speakers of Italian Rogalska K.	Can adequate cognitive phylogenies be constructed? Theofanopoulou C. & Boeckx C.
12.25- 12:50	Age-related variability in the processing of gestural information Cefidekhanie A.H. & Colletta J.M.	Modelling the Role of Theory of Mind in Language Evolution , Woensdregt M., Kirby S., Smith K.	'Index Spectrum Protolanguage Hypothesis': A Perspective From Comparative Biolinguistics Shi E.R.
12.50 –13:20	AULA MAGNA Dan Dediu - Presentation of the Journal of Language Evolution, Oxford University Press 2016
13:20-14.30	Lunch (Foyer AULA MAGNA)

	AULA MAGNA INVITED SYMPOSIUM Holistic approach onto minds in our closest relatives (Organizer: Matsuzawa T.)	AULA VERRA PARALLEL SESSION 2	SALA PROFESSORI PARALLEL SESSION 3
14:30-14:55	Adachi I., Primate origins of conceptual metaphors. Comparative cognitive approach to cross-modal correspondences	Continuity and discontinuity in human language evolution: a historical perspective on an old-fashioned debate Pievani T. & Parravicini A.	Protolanguage possibilities in a Construction Grammar framework Johansson S.
14:55-15:20	Hayashi M., Studying cognitive development in wild chimpanzees by focusing on action grammar in tool-using behaviour	Expressive sounds: Gesture, Interjection and Onomatopoeia in E. B. Tylor's Theory of the Origin and Development of Language Mocerino R.P.	Experimental Evidence for Phonemic Contrasts in a Nonhuman Vocal System Townsend S., Russell A. & Engesser S.
15.20-15:45	Yamamoto S., Evolutionary origin of cooperation: comparative cognitive study with chimpanzees and bonobos in the wild	The Rise of Denomination. Darwinism and philology in G. J. Romanes' hypotheses on the origin of language Piattelli M.	Communicative Relevance and Morphological Complexity: An Iterated Learning Approach Hartmann S., Nölle J., Pleyer M. & Tinitis P.
15.45 -16.10	PARALLEL SESSION 1 Economy of linguistic behaviour. Against the example of bilingual conversation in the context of Rational Choice Theory Głuszkowski M.	Musical emotions at the intersection between philosophy and psychology Meini C.	Meaningful 'mistakes' in language behaviour as a basic factor in its evolutionary dynamics Jasiński A.
16.10 -16.25	Evolution by Selection in Iterated Language Learning Experiments Tamariz M. & Shurley J.	The Prehistory of Protolanguage's Notion. Condillac, De Brosses, Rousseau and the origins of language in the Eighteenth Century Quintili P.	The Vocal Iconicity Challenge! Perlman M. & Lupyan G.
16:25-17:00	Coffee break (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
17:00	Moving to Palladium Theatre – Piazza Bartolomeo Romano, 8
18:00–19:00	INVITED PLENARY (PALLADIUM THEATRE) Michael Corballis Mental prerequisites for language
19:00-20:00	INVITED PLENARY (PALLADIUM THEATRE) Ian Tattersall An evolutionary context for the acquisition of modern human cognition and language
20:30 ROMA TRE ORCHESTRA IN CONCERT  Schubert Soirée  Sonata in A minor for Arpeggione and Piano, D. 821 / The Trio No. 2 in E-flat major for piano, violin, and violoncello, D.929

26 September 2015

09:00-10:00	INVITED PLENARY (AULA MAGNA) Daniel Dor From Experience to Imagination: The Origin and Evolution of Language as a Communication Technology
10:00-10:20	Coffee break (Foyer AULA MAGNA)
10:20-12:20	AULA MAGNA	AULA VERRA	SALA PROFESSORI
	INVITED SYMPOSIUM Ontogeny and language evolution (Organizers: Lock A. /Sinha C.)	SYMPOSIUM The evolution of Gricean communication (Organizers: Moore/Bar-On/Crockford/Proust/Townsend.)	INVITED SYMPOSIUM Language Origin Society (Organizers: Bichakjian)
10:20-10:45	Lyn H., The ubiquity of gestural comprehension	Bar-On D., Expressive communication, the origins of meaning	Feeney A., Was there a protolanguage of thought?
10:45-11:10	Liszkowski U., Limits, scopes, and origins of infant communication	Moore R. & Crockford C., The Gricean status of chimpanzee vocal communication	Kendon A., The place of gesture in language origins theories: a critical evaluation
11:10-11:35	Cochet H., Hand preference for symbolic gestures and pointing gestures: clues toward the understanding of language development	Townsend S., An empirical approach to studying intentional communication in animals	Bichakjian B., What language evolution tells us about the evolution of our potential for language
11:35-12:00	Gontier N., Epistemic pluralism and the evolution of communication	Proust J., On non-Gricean communication in non-humans and humans	Carnie J., A Generalist Account of the Evolution of Linguistic Meaning
12.00- 12:25	PARALLEL SESSION 1	PARALLEL SESSION 2	PARALLEL SESSION 3
	"Creative" imitation. The case of Parody Poggi I. & d'Errico F.	Language evolution in social media: investigating glossogenetic phenomena in Twitter hashtag streams Pokornowski M.	On the origin of language between gestures and sounds Di Vincenzo F., Di Paolo L.D., De Simone D.A. & Manzi G.
12.25- 12:50	The emergence of systematic structure in artificial gestural communication systems. Motamedi Y., Smith K., Schouwstra M. & Kirby S
12:50 CONCLUDING REMARKS (AULA MAGNA)

*LIST OF POSTERS

Oxford University Press will offer a prize for the best poster.
The winner will be awarded during the conference

- Abrunhosa A., Communicating with stones: Neanderthal raw material procurement
- Adornetti I., Action, tools and language evolution: from syntax to pragmatics
- Boeckx C. and Benítez-Burraco A., The “autistic Neanderthal” revisited: autism-candidate genes and the evolution of language-readiness
- Chiera A., Alignment as the key for communication: an evolutionary hypothesis
- Clarke E., Pieters E., Pinfield T., Heistermann M. and Setchell J. M., Advertising fertility as a pathway to the evolution of proto-language
- De Carolis L., Coupé C. and Marsico E., Investigating phonosymbolism with an implicit judgement task in French
- Gonseth C., Kawakami F., Ichino E. and Tomonaga M., Distance encoding in chimpanzees communicative behaviors
- Hussain M., Gender difference in the representation of linguistically related iconic gestures in L1 Urdu speakers
- Irmak N., Artifactual Theory of Words
- Larsson M., Tool-use, thorax asymmetry, and human handedness – a re-evaluation of the warfare shield theory
- Maiorano G., Imitative iconic embryo-stage in human proto-language: from environmental sounds to early phonemes
- Mészáros A., The role of social structure and hierarchy in the evolution of language
- Murgiano M., Hands, tools and signs: the features of the relationship between manipulation and representation in sign languages
- Nicchiarelli S., Language in Action. Holophrases as verbal motor gestures in Holistic Protolanguage
- Qing Zhang E., The evolution of the human vocal learning pathway
- Rodrigues E. and Frota S., Communicative gestures in human infants and chimpanzees
- Stjernberg F., The role of tool use and tool making in the evolution of language
- von Heiseler T. N., The Pullo-Vorenius-Hypothesis
