In case of ex aequo, internship experiences, curriculum vitae and knowledge of further languages will be considered. The students may be requested to send the relative documentation of experiences declared in the CV.

ART. 9 - Publication of results

Students will be informed of the result by e-mail. Results will be published on the following website: [Double Degree | Dipartimento di Management \(uniroma1.it\)](http://DoubleDegree|Dipartimento di Management (uniroma1.it))

Students are strongly invited to check their email account every day while selections are ongoing.

ART. 10 - Acceptance

Selected students will be required to confirm their acceptance through email within 5 working days from the notification of results.

The email must be addressed to ifir.lm77@uniroma1.it (Subject "Double Degree NCFU 2022 - Acceptance/Refusal")

In case of refusal or missing notification by the deadline, the following candidate in the waiting list will be recalled. Recalled students will be required to confirm their participation by written notice within 5 working days.

Acceptance of the scholarship is a serious commitment. A renounce is accepted only for extremely serious reasons and must be communicated by e-mail as soon as possible so as to recall the following candidates. If the renounce occurs after the assignment of the 1st tranche of the scholarship, it must be given back immediately.

ART. 11 - Logistical and Organizational Procedures for the Mobility Period

The assignees will have to fill in the application form of international exchange student following the instructions of the host University, only after having been appointed to the host University and contacted by the latter.

Besides, all selected students must also provide the necessary documentation and permits required by the host country (passport, visa, invitation letter or declaration of the host University, accommodation, etc.).

11.1 Insurance

The University insures each selected student for civil liability, and injuries only during academic activities also for the period of mobility abroad (<https://www.uniroma1.it/it/pagina/polizze-assicurative-studenti>)

Mobility students are independently required to ensure adequate health coverage during their stay abroad, according to the modalities provided by the University and the host country.

ART. 12 - Scholarship

12.1 - Preamble

The grant is provided by the International Office - Non-EU Mobility and International educational Agreements Unit (ARI) and is equal to 700€ net per month for the first five months of mobility. Starting from the 6th month of mobility, the amount is set at €500 net per month, for a minimum period abroad of 90 days (3 months) as per BoD resolution no. 426/19 issued on 17.12.2019.

The scholarship will correspond to the effective and continuing duration of the mobility, proved by the acceptance letter, the arrival certificate, the departure certificate and the transcript of records issued by host University and according to the academic calendar and the maximum amount assigned.

The duration of the mobility cannot be less than three months (90 days) and not more than 12 months (2 consecutive semesters).

For durations longer than three months, the entire monthly contribution will be recognised starting from the 16th day of stay at the host University. The counting of the days spent at the host University will be made automatically by the mobility management application, which will take into account each month as having 30 days and not the solar one.

Students who remain abroad for two consecutive semesters must exceed a period of 9 months and 16 days.

No contributions will be paid for mobilities of 7, 8 and 9 months.

Assigned Months	Minimum duration abroad	Total amount
3 months	90 days	2100€
4 months	3 months and 16 days	2800€
5 months	4 months and 16 days	3500€
6 months	5 months and 16 days	4000€

10 months	9 months and 16 days	6000€
11 months	10 months and 16 days	6500€
12 months	11 months and 16 days	7000€

Students can be granted a scholarship only once for each cycle of studies. The scholarship is not combinable with other grants.

12.2 - Modalities of Grant Disbursement

The grant is paid according to the terms and conditions contained in the mobility contract that will be signed by the student and ARI - Non-EU Mobility and International educational Agreements Unit and also listed below:

ONE SEMESTER MOBILITY

The minimum period abroad must be equal to 90 days (3 months).

The scholarship will be accredited in two installments:

The first instalment, which amounts to 70% of the scholarship will be accredited to your bank account within 60 days of the signature of the contract.

The remaining 30% will be accredited upon return.

The actual final balance will only be accredited when all necessary documentation, as described in the contract, has been submitted.

Students should contact agreement coordinators for all other doubts on academic aspects of their mobility period or the International Office (ARI) for information on scholarships and any other administrative issues.

For one semester mobilities (3, 4, 5 or 6 months), extensions may be granted without scholarship.

TWO SEMESTERS MOBILITY

The minimum period abroad must be equal to 10 months (9 months and 16 days).

The scholarship will be accredited in 3 installments:

- 70% within 60 days of the signature of the contract.
- 70% upon completion of the first semester abroad
- balance upon return

The actual final balance will only be accredited when all necessary documentation, as described in the contract, has been submitted.

Selected students will receive the scholarship on condition that:

- they receive the acceptance letter issued by the host university stating a minimum period of stay equal to 90 days (3 months)
- they fill in the online Learning agreement approved by the Academic Coordinators for International Mobility (RAMs)
- they have signed the contract.

All the procedures required by the International Office (ARI) are due to be concluded by 10 days before starting of the mobility.

12.3 - Learning Agreement

The learning agreement shall contain the double degree study plan (Annex A).

A list of the Academic Coordinators for International Mobility (RAMs) is available on: <https://www.uniroma1.it/en/pagina/coordinators-and-academics-supervisors-international-mobility>

Learning Agreement shall contain a minimum of 12 CFUs to be recognized upon return. In case of 2 semesters mobility Learning Agreement shall contain a minimum of 12 CFUs to be recognized upon return a minimum of 24 CFUs.

12.4 - Compliance of Documentation and return of the grant

Required Documentation will be subjected to verification by the International Office (ARI)

If such documentation does not comply with the requests students may be requested to return the installment back to Sapienza International Office (ARI).

The student may be requested to refund the grant if:

- has not taken exams or carried out the thesis research agreed for a minimum of 12 CFU and consequently obtained the recognition of credits accrued abroad;
- has completed their mobility before the minimum of 90 days;
- has received as first instalment of the grant an amount higher than the total amount for the entire duration of the mobility. The actual length of the mobility will be attested by the certificate of arrival and departure (form can be found on the personal page of the selected student);
- the period of attendance is not continuous;
- the student has made a false declaration;
- renounced mobility after signing the contract.

The balance of the grant may not be recognized to the student in case:

- They have graduated before the return of the end of mobility documentation from ARI - Non-EU Mobility and International educational Agreements Unit without proceeding to the recognition of the exams or the thesis research planned during the mobility;
- does not provide all the end of mobility documentation required by ARI - Non-EU Mobility and International educational Agreements Unit within the terms established in the mobility contract.

ART. 13 - Compatibility with other International mobility programs

Students who have already benefited from a non-EU mobility grant in the past will not be eligible for a second grant on the same funds unless they are enrolled in subsequent cycles of their academic career. NON-EU scholarship is not combinable with other Sapienza scholarships except for the Laziodisco scholarship.

It is also not permitted to receive grants for international exchanges or stays abroad on Sapienza funds at the same time as the grant in question.

This grant cannot be cumulated with contributions provided by the "grant for thesis abroad" programme.

However, you may participate in several Calls in the same academic year, including other mobility programmes, but the study period must be different and not exceed the maximum period of mobility abroad defined by the degree course.

Selected students who have sent their application and were selected for the Erasmus+ call (same period) should notify to Sapienza International Office (ARI) and to the Academic Coordinator for International Mobility (RAM) the program they intend to participate in, consequently the scholarship they intend to accept, under penalty of exclusion from both programs.

ART. 14 - Personal Data Processing

The personal data provided by the candidates with the application form will be processed to manage the selections and the subsequent phases of the project within and for the institutional purposes of the Public Administration. The processing of personal data is governed by the European Regulation no. 679 of 27.4.2016 - GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) as well as by the national legislation in force (Legislative Decree 196/2003 - Personal Data Protection Code).
