

BRIEF CV

GIULIA PETTOELLO

Born in 1987, she graduated with honours in Architecture in 2012 from La Sapienza University of Rome. She won an ERASMUS scholarship at the Polytechnic University of Valencia in Spain. In 2012 she held a six-month internship as an interior designer at FENDI s.r.l. In 2014 she held a three-month internship at Duke University in North Carolina, USA. In 2016 she defended her doctorate “Mutable Museum: digital technologies for enhancing cultural heritage”. She is a research fellow since 2017 and an adjunct professor since 2018 at Sapienza University of Rome.