Personal Profile

I am a motivated person enrolled in the course of Global Humanities at Sapienza University. I am a refugee student with a deep interest in cultures, global politics, histories and social studies. I possess good English communication skills and I am presently studying Italian language and culture. I am a friendly person and a good team worker, but I am reserved and value good friends. I enjoy learning new things and helping others to do the same. I have faced many difficulties in my life. I am looking for a chance to build my future, continue my studies and develop my career. I want to gain experience in working towards helping others to achieve their dreams.

Education

- Enrolled in the BA in Global Humanities at Sapienza University;
- Diploma awarded by the Dhaka Imperial College, Dhaka (Bangladesh).

Work Experiences

AUR, Rome 2015-2016

Internship job in the Computer Lab.

Panditsar High School, Shariatpur (Bangladesh) 2009-2011

Experience of liaising with younger students and teachers as a mentor at Panditsar High School. Found different ways of explaining things and motivating Class 9 students, especially in their Math's assignments.

Dhaka Imperial College, Dhaka (Bangladesh) 2011-2013

Experienced at presenting projects both individually and as a part of a team during my Science Studies (A level) at the Dhaka Imperial College. This involved preparing power point slides, delivering presentations to a varied audience and producing written reports.

Grocery Shop, Shariatpur (Bangladesh) 2009-2011

Possesses experience of working in village's grocery shop, where I have been employed both as a seller and as an accountant. Excellent communication skills and capacity of dealing with different and sometimes very demanding customers.

House guardian, Shariatpur (Bangladesh) 2009-2015

Possesses experience as 'house guardian', as neighbors in Bangladesh regularly arranged for me to house – sit when they were away. I am a reliable person and this gained me their trust to ensure the security and maintenance of their properties in their absence.
