ART. 3 - Requirements

This call is open to students enrolled in the I year of the Master's Degree in Business Management (LM-77).

All expenses related to the participation in the program, notably transport, accommodation and food, administrative expenses, costs associated with securing a visa, medical/health/accident insurance, books and personal expenses, will be borne by students.

Students must comply with all the regulations of both universities in order to obtain the two Degrees. They will not be required to pay additional tuition fees at the partner university, but they will continue paying fees to Sapienza University.

Every effort will be made to provide students with complete, accurate and timely information. However, Sapienza University reserves the right to change, amend, modify or revoke the aforementioned program. Sapienza is not responsible for any cancellation or modification due to events beyond its control. If the program is cancelled or modified for these reasons, Sapienza University will inform all interested students in a timely manner.

Eligible students can apply if they are in regular time frame and have no pending administrative issues with Sapienza University. Moreover, students will be able to participate if they comply with the following requirements:

- Bachelor's degree preferably in Business Administration or Economics studies
- to be enrolled in the I year of the Master's Degree in Business management (LM-77)
- to have an adequate level of English language (level C1 or equivalent) in accordance with the requirements set out by the partner University. The following certificates are required: TOEFL (Test score of 80 or more) or IELTS – Academic (minimum score of 6.5).

The mentioned certificates should not be older than two years from the application deadline and should respect the validity indicated in the certificate itself.

- to maintain the student status until the end of the mobility (whole academic year 2024/2025) and to - do not graduate in Sapienza University before the recognition of the credits earned at the partner University;

- not to receive other Sapienza scholarships.
