Rome, 20 March 2019

Dear Prof. Marco Romito,

I would like to invite you to give a seminar at the Department of Mathematics of University La Sapienza in Rome. In particular, being a topic covered by the research project PRIN 2015 of which I am local coordinator, we would be very pleased if the seminar could be on fluctuations for point vortices.

The best for me and my colleagues would be to have the seminar on 15.04.19. We can pay you for the seminar an amount of around 155 euros (tax included).

Wishing to see you in Rome soon,

Prof.ssa Alessandra Faggionato
